LOCATION

The subjects are situated within the heart of the City Centre on the North side of Union Terrace, close to the junction of Skene Terrace and Rosemount Viaduct. The property has fantastic views over the Union Terrace Gardens and is just over the road from the new Common Sense Cafe. Union Street is approximately 350 yards to the South, forming the main commercial thoroughfare for Aberdeen, with a mixture of uses such as retail, licensed, office, residential and hotels. Union Square Shopping Centre is within walking distance and is home to major retailers such as M&S, NEXT, Apple, and a host of restaurants such as Wagamama & Yo Sushi. The subject property is also located near the railway/bus stations with Denburn car park situated a few minutes walk away.

Nearby occupiers include Mercure Caledonian Hotel, Chaophraya, Barclays Bank and Burnett and Reid LLP.

The exact location of the property is highlighted in the adjacent plan.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a third floor office suite within a terraced Category Grade B listed building. The property is constructed of traditional granite construction with striking, ornate stonework and a pitched and slated roof.

The office suite is self-contained and benefits from a mixture of open plan and cellular accommodation along with dedicated kitchen facilities and male and female toilets. Internal finishes include carpeted floors, plastered and painted walls and suspended ceilings incorporating recessed fluorescent lighting. Heating is by way of gas central heating. The subjects can be accessed either by stair or via a passenger lift from an entrance hall making the suite DDA compliant.
