LOCATION

Swan House is an office building located within the grounds of Bosworth Hall Hotel, in a prestigious and attractive location within this historic market town.

Market Bosworth is a historic town, of considerable charm and character situated 13 miles to the west of Leicester and 7 miles north west of Hinckley, lying at the heart of an area of particularly attractive countryside. The town, which is synonymous with the Battle of Bosworth, is traversed east to west by the B585 which crosses the A447 Hinckley to Coalville road approximately 1 mile to the east. Market Bosworth is an important rural service centre as well as being a tourist centre and a popular residential location.

DESCRIPTION

Swan House is a dedicated office building and we are able to offer suites at ground & first floor level which will benefit from car parking. There are communal male and female WC facilities, shared kitchens and also a passenger lift. The offices benefit from double glazed windows.
