LOCATION

Cupar is a town, former royal burgh and parish in Fife, Scotland. It lies between Dundee and Glenrothes. According to a 2011 population estimate, Cupar had a population around 9,000, making it the ninth largest settlement in Fife, and the civil parish a population of 11,183. The town is located on the A91 carriageway which links St Andrews to Stirling / Perth. The town also benefits from access to the main railway and bus network.

The subjects are located on the northern side of St Catherine Street between its junctions with Castlehill and East Bridge and forms part of the main town centre and retail area.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a "B" listed mid terraced 4 storey building which we would estimate was constructed in the late 1800's. The main building is of traditional stone construction surmounted by a pitched and slated roof. Internally, the 2nd Floor provides 4 office rooms, store and w.c.

The property can be leased in whole or in part and may suit alternative uses such as hair salon, studio and therapy rooms.
