LOCATION

Perth is one of Scotland's most affluent cities and is the administrative centre for Perth & Kinross Council. It is strategically positioned at the heart of Scotland at the hub of the country's transport network. The city is located about 43 miles north of Edinburgh, 24 miles west of Dundee and 63 miles north east of Glasgow at the meeting point of the M9, M85 (A85) and A9 roads.

The city has a resident population of 50,000 and is rapidly growing. Perth's potential retail catchment population is 1.98 million, with 338,000 living within a 30 minute drive time. The total core catchment expenditure is estimated at £631 million annually.

Perth College UHI constitutes the largest single campus of the University of Highlands & Islands, which offers qualifications all the way up to Masters level.

Perth is a popular tourist destination and tourism accounts for around 12% of total employment in the area. In 2014 the area received approximately 1.9 million visits.
