Location

The subjects are located on the outskirts of Renfrew, approximately 8 miles west of Glasgow City Centre. The site is situated adjacent to the M8 motorway with access from Arkleston Road.

The surrounding area is mixed use with David Lloyd Health Club and St Columba's Church immediately neighbouring the subjects, surrounded by a residential neighbourhood. Westway Park, Scotland's largest fully enclosed industrial & office park, is situated a short 5 minute drive north of the subjects.

Other nearby occupiers include Renfrew Care Home, Renfrew Leisure Centre, Glynhill Hotel & Spa, Shell with EV charging stations, Alternative Veterinary Therapies and a 24/7 convenience store.

Description

The site consists a total of 1.16 hectares (2.86 acres) of predominantly landscaped area with a right of access road to neighbouring David Lloyd Health Club.

Planning

The regeneration of Renfrew Riverside is set to significantly improve Renfrew's permeability via a new road bridge across the River Clyde. Renfrewshire Council also recognises the site's western boundary as a 'core path' indicating its arterial route for vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

Historically, the site itself received consent for a 46-bed hotel, restaurant and 21 dedicated car parking spaces. Please refer to Renfrewshire Council for further information and any planning related queries.

Technical Information

Any parties seeking to develop the site will need to carry out their own investigations to satisfy themselves on environmental aspects.

Terms

Offers are invited for the benefit of our client's heritable interest.

All parties should note their interest with the selling agents as a Closing Date may be held in future for submission of bids.

Costs
