LOCATION

The site is located in Dalgety Bay at the east end of the Hillend and Donibristle Industrial Estate and is easily accessed by road (A921 and M90 motorway), rail and public transport. Dalgety Bay railway station is on the Fife Circle and is only a 15 minute walk with connecting services to Edinburgh. The site is a short distance from the Queensferry Crossing and just 30 minutes from Edinburgh International Airport.

USE

Fife Council is seeking proposals from businesses with a focus on the key criteria of the City Region Deal Programme including innovation, technology, growth as well as demonstrating employment creation, investment and sustainability. Further details in respect of the criteria are available on request.

Prospective purchasers should submit a business plan or, as a minimum, supporting documents as part of any application setting out confirmation of the nature of business proposals including commitment to innovation, funding availability, proposed investment, employment creation, sustainability and timescales.

PLANNING

The site is situated within a safeguarded employment area and is suitable for Class 4 (Office/Light Industrial), Class 5 (General Industrial) and Class 6 (Storage and Distribution) of the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) (Scotland) Order 1997. Interested parties should make their own enquiries of the local planning authority, Fife Council, in relation to any proposed uses for the site.

It should be noted that part of the site is subject to a Tree Preservation Order. Further details can be provided on request.

TERMS

- Price on application to J & E Shepherd.
- Prices quoted are exclusive and may be subject to VAT.
- The heritable interest (equivalent to freehold) will be offered and interested parties are strongly recommended to notify J & E Shepherd of their interest in writing to ensure notification of a future closing date for offers.
- Consideration will be given to a ground lease and/or joint venture proposal.
- The date of entry shall be agreed, subject to legal settlement.
- Any sale will be subject to any purchaser entering into a Deed of Conditions, if required, in respect of maintenance of common parts.
- Each party to bear their own legal costs in the documentation of this transaction; however, the purchaser/lessee will be liable for Land and Buildings Transaction Tax, Registration Dues etc & VAT incurred thereon. The land will be sold subject to a condition that any development proposal will be required to be completed within an agreed timescale and, further, will be sold and/ or leased subject to a use restriction having regard to the current planning status and shall include, as appropriate, any claw-back provisions and standard security, as necessary, and otherwise subject to any other terms and conditions as may be agreed.
- There will be an ongoing commitment to comply with the conditions of the City Region Deal funding.

ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING

A legally binding contract entered into as set out in the heads of terms will be subject to the counterparty satisfying J & E Shepherd requirements in relation to Anti-Money Laundering Regulations.
