Southmere – a thriving new local centre in Thamesmead

Over £9 billion is being invested in Thamesmead, making it one of the biggest regeneration projects in the UK.

A brand new neighbourhood at Southmere of 534 new homes is under construction, with a further 2,279 planned in future phases.

South Thamesmead is home to a diverse and closely knit existing community and will become home to many more looking for easy access to central London but with more space to breathe or to grow a family.

Southmere will have excellent commuter access due to the new Elizabeth Line, making it an excellent place for people to work, visit and call home.

Cygnet Square will be a new civic square in the centre of this development for the whole of South Thamesmead, offering space for people to meet, sit next to Southmere Lake and enjoy the local landscape.

The square will include shops, cafés, playable fountains and The Nest, which will house Thamesmead's new library and a community space upstairs. It directly overlooks Southmere Lake offering a space for relaxation or meeting friends.

Our culture programme in Thamesmead includes a wide range of events and projects, from small-scale workshops and annual festivals to international art commissions to raise the profile of Thamesmead and create a vibrant and thriving neighbourhood.

A local artist has recently been appointed to develop the first artwork for Cygnet Square which will form the first step in activating this new public space.

An architectural rendering of a modern urban plaza. On the left, a multi-story brick building with balconies overlooks a market area with striped awnings and people. In the center, a large, active fountain with multiple jets of water is surrounded by people, including children. To the right, a modern building with a perforated metal facade and large glass windows is visible. The plaza is paved with stone tiles and features outdoor seating with tables and benches. People are walking, sitting, and interacting throughout the space. In the background, a lake and trees are visible under a blue sky with birds. The text "New retail and leisure hub by the lake" is overlaid in white on the right side of the image. A sign on the brick building reads "THE NEST COMMUNITY & LEISURE BUILDING".

It also runs a community foundation, helping to create prosperity and success for people in London and the south-east of the UK.
