Investments

The £430m City Centre South development delivers a residential-led, mixed-use regeneration scheme linked to Friargate. It will transform the city centre and has outline planning consent to deliver up to 1,300 new homes, restaurants, bars, shops, leisure facilities and high quality public spaces.

The extension of Coventry Railway Station is an £82m programme to transform the station and aspects of the surrounding area, such as a multi-storey car park and a bus interchange.

And of course, there’s Friargate itself, a £700m development and delivery priority for both Coventry City Council and West Midlands Combined Authority.

Innovation

Coventry and Warwickshire are home to a number of emerging centres of excellence, including:

- The National Low Carbon Centre at Stoneleigh Park, a unique game changer in the low carbon and clean tech market
- The Advanced Propulsion Centre located at University of Warwick

The area is a leader in university and private sector R&D activity. It has also emerged as a centre for innovative battery technology, successfully facilitating the delivery of UK BIC.

Talent pool

With its two universities, Coventry University and University of Warwick, the area has a young, highly skilled and educated talent pool. Well known for courses in engineering, mathematics and leadership – to name a few – the universities here generate ideal skillsets for aspirational and innovative businesses, as well as those responsible for critical decision-making.

Government departments

Coventry, and the Friargate development specifically, have drawn increasing interest from government departments over recent years. In 2019, One Friargate welcomed Homes England, which brought hundreds of jobs to the area and made Coventry a key location for public sector property, investment and relocation decisions.

Government departments are attracted to Coventry and Friargate due to:

- Existing on-site government occupiers, which is attractive to other government departments considering relocation.
- The city’s highly skilled and diverse talent pool – Coventry University also hosts a unique Civil Service Leadership training scheme.
- Coventry becoming the epicentre for automated vehicles and automotive battery innovation, which requires significant government participation in regards to legislation and policy-making.

IN THE CITY

Coventry city centre provides a wide range of amenities that are all on your doorstep if you work at TWO FRIARGATE.

Your team can find everything they need, with the city's excellent retail offering. You can explore well known brands and exciting independent outlets in Coventry city centre, or visit the larger retail parks further afield. Then afterwards, there's a wealth of places to choose from to enjoy a drink or a bite to eat.

Across the city's restaurants, bars, pubs, cafés and food-to-go outlets, there is food and drink for every need and occasion. You and your team can enjoy popular chains like Bistrot Pierre and The Botanist as well as Coventry's own successes, from the fine dining of Telegraph Hotel, to the Medieval Banquets of Coombe Abbey, to the award-winning curries of Turmeric Gold.

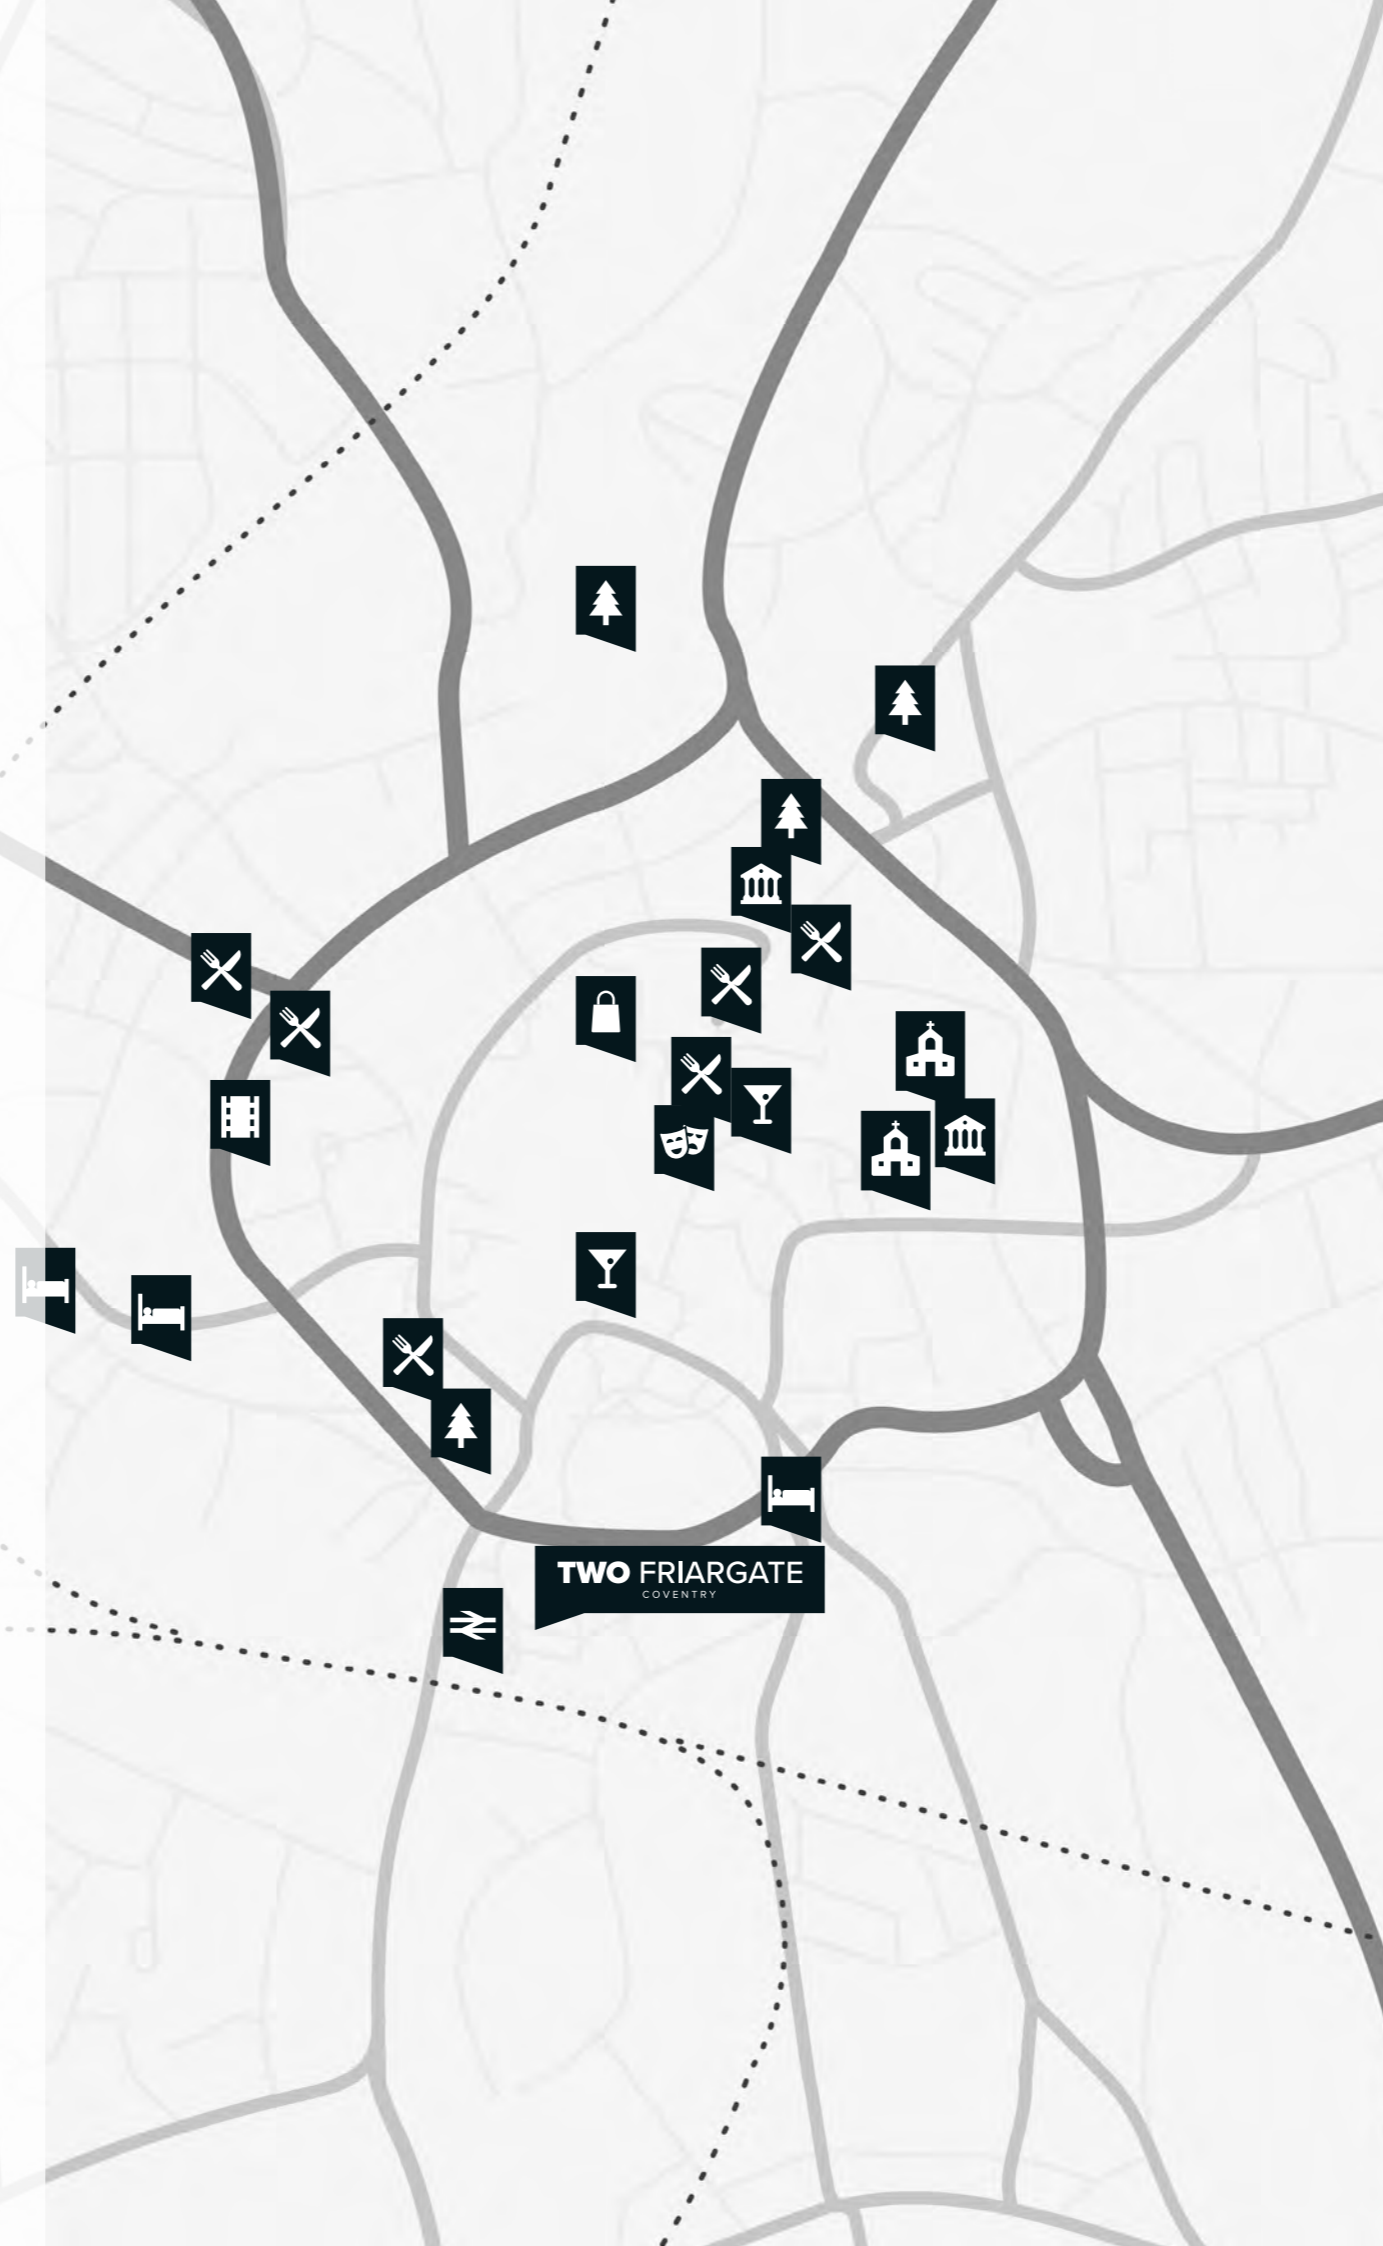

History and culture

Coventry has a rich cultural offering with cinemas, theatres and music venues, and an illustrious history in the arts – notably as the home of the Two-Tone music genre.

Coventry is a deeply historic city. From the vital role it played in the Second World War, all the way back to the tales of Lady Godiva in the 11th century. The mix of old and new history at the heart of Coventry is demonstrated by two of its three cathedrals – the ruins of St Michael's Cathedral, built in the 14th century and destroyed in World War II, and Coventry Cathedral, which was built in 1951 to replace it. Both of these landmarks are popular tourist attractions.

UK City of Culture 2021/22, Coventry's strong legacy of cultural events and programmes has been invigorated with additional funding that will benefit its residents, businesses and visitors for many years to come.

In and around Coventry, there are plenty of places to call home – from modern metropolitan apartments in the city to rustic thatched roof houses in nearby villages. Key residential areas outside of the city centre include:

- Leamington Spa
