NATIONAL CONNECTIVITY

At the forefront of a region going through a host of positive changes, Solihull has world-class connectivity with Birmingham Airport and HS2 underpinning regeneration within the Borough.

Situated at the intersection of the country's motorway and rail network, Solihull's unparalleled location means more than 90% of the UK population live within a four-hour travel time.

The arrival of HS2 will also further strengthen Solihull's enviable transport links, with travel times to London significantly reduced bringing 1.3m people within a 38-minute public transport commute.
