BOREHAMWOOD

Borehamwood is a strong commercial location occupying a strategic location adjoining the A1 two miles south of its intersection with the M25 at South Mimms (junction 23). In addition to the M25 it also offers a direct access to London and the North Circular Road.

Borehamwood and Elstree Station is a short distance from the property and provides an extremely efficient service to London and is on the Thames Link to Gatwick and Brighton.

Borehamwood has developed strongly as an office centre with a series of major headquarters facilities at Elstree Way and a cluster of buildings around the station area of which this development is part.

The town is a global center for the film industry with Elstree Studios within walking distance.
