

Edinburgh – Commercial Quay

About the Building

This state-of-the-art office space boasts a trendy interior design that will impress both clients and colleagues from the moment they walk through the door. An old bond, the space includes unique character throughout the space with design features to highlight the history of the building. Flexible office solutions are available as members can work in their own sleek private office space - available in a range of sizes to accommodate growing business'. Hot desking options are also available for those who want a single desk in a communal area which will transform into a brewery each weeknight and weekend. Other useful amenities include modern meeting rooms and lounge areas. You can also enjoy free-flowing tea and coffee that will keep you caffeinated throughout the working day.

About the Location

This office space is located in the heart of the popular shore area of Leith – a vibrant Edinburgh neighbourhood, only 3 miles north of the City Centre. Grab a bite to eat at Café Tartine on the doorstep of the office. Alternatively, grab a drink at Teuchters Landing just two-minutes away. You can hop on the bus at Sandport Street directly opposite the office, just one-minute away on foot. For those arriving by car parking facilities are also available just one-minute away at Victoria Quay Parking. This space also supports green transport and members can find a place to park their bike outside the office.