Description

Kingswick House is a beautiful period building with thoroughly refurbished contemporary offices on the inside, but retaining many attractive features, particularly in the common areas. The private offices are designed for 1 to 8 people but are often combined by occupiers to create larger suites as required. The offices can be taken furnished or unfurnished.

Location

Kingswick House is just a short walk away from Sunninghill High Street and the many local shops, restaurants and services that it provides. Ascot and Sunningdale railway stations are both within a few minutes drive and the M3, M4 and M25 are all close by.
