Description

The property comprises a modern detached trade counter/showroom/business unit with extensive glazed elevations. Internally there is ground floor offices, showroom or production space, served by a sectional loading door. At first floor level there is further office/showroom space and staff welfare facilities. Externally there is a yard providing generous loading provisions and 20 car parking spaces.

Location

The Property is very prominently located close to the junction of Edinburgh Way with Riverway. Its immediate neighbours include Screwfix, Nicholls & Clarke, Magnet Kitchens, Euro Car Parts, Bristol Street Motors Peugeot, and Marshalls Volkswagen. Most national trade counter operators are within close proximity to the property, and the most out-of-town retailers are located on the various retail parks that front Edinburgh Way. The property is within easy walking distance of Harlow Mill station serving London Liverpool Street via Tottenham Hale (Victoria line). Harlow is situated to the East of the M11 and Junction 7 (c.3 miles) and 7A is (c.4 miles) from the property. Harlow is an expanding new town with a current population of c.90,500. This is due to increase with major housing developments planned for the area.
