LOCATION

Dalgety Bay is a town in Fife situated approximately 5 miles to the southeast of Dunfermline and 1 mile east of Inverkeithing. The town has a resident population now estimated to be 10,000 and is ideally positioned to benefit from good road links being approximately two miles to the east of the Admiralty junction of the M90 with the Forth Bridges also in close proximity.

The subjects are situated on the north side of Ridgeway which is the principal road through the established Hillend/Donibristle Industrial Estate. The surrounding area is characterized by industrial /commercial units, although towards the western end of Ridge Way there are Asda and Aldi units alongside a retail development with the likes of Screwfix, Dominos, Greggs and Subway in occupation.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a warehouse and office unit of steel portal frame construction.

The main workshop area has an eaves height of approximately 4m and benefits from a roller shutter door to the eastmost wall with a small secure yard area externally.

Off street parking is included with the subjects for 4/5 cars.

RENT

Rental offers in the region of £32,000 per annum (exc VAT) will be considered for a negotiable term of years.

EPC

Released on application.

RATING

The current Rateable Value is £22,500.

The rate poundage for 2024/2025 is 49.8p.
