LOCATION

The subjects are situated on the north side of Carden Place and enjoy a prominent profile a short distance from Queen's Cross. The building is situated in the heart of Aberdeen's West End office district, whilst only being a short walk from Union Street – Aberdeen's principle retail thoroughfare and arterial traffic route.

The property close to the Queen's Road/Anderson Drive junction forming part of Aberdeen's main arterial route through the city providing ease of access north and south via the A90.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects are arranged over first and attic levels within a one and half storey, lower ground floor and attic property of traditional granite and slate construction incorporating dormer projections. Access is provided from the eastern elevation via an external staircase.

Internally, the accommodation provides cellular office accommodation, two W.C.'s and storage areas at first floor level, whilst at second floor, further storage and staff welfare facilities are provided. The floors throughout are of suspended timber overlaid in carpet whilst the walls and ceilings are papered/painted. Natural is provided by means of timber, single glazed traditional sash and case windows to the front and rear elevations at first floor and by dormers single glazed metal framed roof lights, whilst artificial light is provided via a mixture of light fittings.
