Sutton has a busy town centre with an array of shops, bars, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities, Sutton is well connected in terms of main line rail and road connections.

Sutton has seen extensive investment in the town centre in recent years including a new 131,500 sq ft Sainsburys supermarket at the bottom of the town and the construction of Sutton Plaza including a new Ibis hotel adjacent to Sutton Rail Station together with a swathe of new homes. The pedestrianised High Street which has 2 major shopping centres -St Nicholas and Times square-has a wide array of national retailers including M&S, Boots Waterstones and Flannels and an excellent selection of food and beverage offerings for occupiers. Sutton Station provides Southern services to London Victoria and London Bridge, and Thameslink services to Wimbledon, London Blackfriars and beyond. The town centre also features an extensive bus service.
